WHAT WE DO

Our experts are known for their proactivity: they help your business by providing tools, information and support that you can implement into your own risk management program to ensure long-term success. Each year, they conduct over 6,000 risk assessments and service calls for Canadian businesses like yours. By doing so, they compiled a selection of best practices derived from real experiences and relevant challenges. If your business has specific issues or concerns, our specialists will customize an action plan to address the risks and processes that matter most to your bottom line

Training: Using industry standards and best practices, we continue to develop a variety of training courses and seminars, including the FACTS defensive driver training for commercial vehicles. Fully customizable, these programs are offered across the country.
